

The Gubbio Project Honorary Board

Honorary Board: To support the spirit and work of the Gubbio Project.
(see: <http://thegubbioproject.org>)

The Honorary Board of The Gubbio Project serves simply to support the goals of Gubbio as determined by the governance board and to attract people and resources to the fulfilling of the mission and vision of the organization. The honorary board is to be distinguished from the governance board in that it does not hold any legal obligations in the functioning or advising of Gubbio as a non-profit organization.

Expectations of Board Members (One year commitment):

1. Prayer. Spend one half hour sitting in prayer in St. Boniface Church two times in the year when “Sacred Sleep” is being offered” by the Gubbio Project
(Monday through Friday 7:30am- 12:15pm)
2. Presence. Attend the annual Gubbio Project Benefit (Fall)
3. People. Invite two people to join the honorary board sometime within the year
4. Pledge. Decide on an annual contribution that connects your life significantly to the ministry of Gubbio.

I, _____, accept the invitation from the existing Governance Board of the Gubbio Project to be an Honorary Board member for one year in its ministry of service to the homeless in the Tenderloin District and in being a spiritual link between rich and poor.

I understand the following responsibilities as an honorary board member to be :

1. Prayer. Spend one half hour sitting in prayer in St. Boniface Church two times in the year when "Sacred Sleep" is being offered" by the Gubbio Project (Monday through Friday 7:30am- 12:15pm).
2. Presence. Attend the annual Gubbio Project Benefit (Fall).
3. People. Invite two people to join the honorary board sometime within the year.
4. Pledge. Decide on an annual contribution that connects my life significantly to the ministry of The Gubbio Project.

As part of this commitment I state my annual pledge will be _____. This will be fulfilled within one year of the date of signing this document along with the above mentioned responsibilities. I also understand that the honorary board is to be distinguished from the governance board of the Gubbio Project in that it does not hold any legal obligations in the functioning or advising of Gubbio. It serves simply to support the goals of Gubbio as determined by the governance board and to attract people and resources to the fulfilling of the mission and vision of the organization.
